

This exercise augments classroom discussion of a writing sample.

1. List the members of your group below. Underline your name.
2. List five strengths of the sample, providing concrete pointers.

3. List five weaknesses of the sample, providing concrete pointers.

4. Using the ideas discussed in class (or others), provide five important, general suggestions for similar writing.