This exercise augments classroom discussion on programming practices, with an emphasis on readability of programs.

1. List the members of your group below. Underline your name.

2. Write a small program to solve a problem of your choice (check) in a language of your choice (check).

3. Critique of the the code of Question 2:

4. List three dos and three don'ts for writing readable programs: