

This exercise augments classroom discussion on writing.

1. List the members of your group below. Underline your name.
2. Outline the section- and subsection-level of your capstone report, with rough page counts for each section.

3. Identify each presentation and list three of its strengths and three of its weaknesses.

[additional space for answering the earlier question]